GERMANY SENDS FORTH THE DOVE OF PEACE

Chancellor Von Bethman Hollweg Calls Representatives of United States, Spain and Switzerland Into Conference This Morning and Requests That They Inform Their Respective Governments That Germany and Her Allies Are Ready to Enter Forthwith Into Proposals for Peace.

Advices From Berlin Indicate That Proposals Will Be to Restore Status Quo Before the War With an Independent Poland and Lithuania.

OCCUPIED PORTIONS OF BELGIUM AND FRANCE TO BE SURRENDERED

Captured German Colonies to Be Returned to Germany and the Balkan Situation to Be Disposed of in Peace Conferences.

Berlin, December 12.—(Bulletin)—Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg this morning received the representatives of the United States, Spain and Switzerland, the nations protecting German interests in hostile countries, and transmitted to them a note which he asked them to make known to the hostile governments.

PROPOSE PEACE NEGOTIATIONS FORTHWITH

Berlin, December 12.—Germany today proposed to enter forthwith into peace negotiations.

The Austrian, Turkish and Bulgarian governments are making similar proposals. These proposals have been transmitted also to the Vatican.

ALL CENTRAL POWERS JOIN

Berlin, December 12.—(Bulletin E. O. S.)—The following announcement was given out today by the semi-official Overseas News Agency:

"The Chancellor this morning received, one after another, the representatives of the United States of America, Spain and Switzerland; that is, of the states protecting German interests in hostile foreign countries.

"The Chancellor transmitted to them a note, and asked them to bring it to the knowledge of the hostile governments. The note will be read today in the Reichstag by the Chancellor.

"In the note, the four Allied (Central) Powers propose to enter forthwith on peace negotiations.

"The propositions which they bring for such negotiations are, according to their firm belief, appropriate for the establishment of a lasting peace.

"The Governments at Vienna, Constantinople and Sofia transmitted identical notes, and also communicated with the Holy See and all other neutral powers."

THE GREEK SITUATION PUTS PIRAEUS, THE PORT OF ATHENS, IN DANGER

FRENCH GUNS TRAINED ON PIRAEUS, THE PORT OF ATHENS.

In allied quarters in Washington it was stated that the new British ministry will attempt the complete reduction of Greece, with recognition of the Venizelos government as the legitimate national authority, and the arrest or deposition of King Constantine.

London dispatches say reports from Athens and Piraeus, the port of Athens, reiterated emphatically and with details that the recent attack on the entente allies in Athens was the result of a deliberately prepared plot by the king and his government.

The allies insist that the Royalists, headed by the king, have adopted a permanently bellicose attitude toward the entente. They say that the mobilization is proceeding rapidly and that every warlike preparation is in progress, encouraged by the Roumanian victories and lavish promises from Germany.

The dispatches add that Greek soldiers occupy all the vantage points near Athens and Piraeus and are digging trenches and mounting guns. The correspondents say Greek activities may endanger the success of the entire allied operations in Balkans. They urge vigorous allied action. WASHINGTON IS NOTIFIED

German Embassy Receives Word of Peace Proposals.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, December 12.—Dispatches to the German Embassy, telling of the Chancellor's action in calling in the neutral diplomats and transmitting the peace proposals of the Central Powers, arrived soon after the news dispatches.

The terms for the restoration of Belgium and portions of France gave no indication, so far as known, of stipulations such as generally have been expected by the Allies, although they did not absolutely dispose of their possibility.

It was indicated that, while the German Allies might not entirely expect that the proposals would actually cause a peace conference, they were not without hope that they would, and they were hopeful, at least, that they would be the means of getting the belligerents together, in some manner, to discuss the situation, and this, it was expected, would lead to a basis for peace.

WHEAT BREAKS

(Associated Press Dispatch)
Chicago, December 12.—(Bulletin)—Wheat on the Chicago Board of Trade, on receipt of the news of the proposal for peace of Germany and her allies, broke more than eight cents.

May wheat sold last night at $1.75 1-8. Within fifteen minutes after the opening today, the price touched $1.66 1-2.

ADVANCE CONTINUES

By Associated Press Dispatch.

The Teutonic advance in eastern Wallachia is continuing, with the Roumanians apparently manœuvring their forces, as best they can under the steady pressure, with a view to taking up a defensive line along the Buzeu River near the southern boundary of their northern province of Moldavia.

Petrograd reports the failure of Teutonic attacks along the Moldavian frontier and in certain Wallachian sectors; notably northeast of Ploechi, where the Austro-German forces are pressing toward the Buzeu. New activity has been developed by the Germans on the Franco-Belgian front. They attacked last evening on the edge of Desloges Wood, south of the Somme sector, but, according to Paris, were checked, and driven out of portions of advance positions that they had occupied.

The British Foreign Office, under the new foreign secretary, A. J. Balfour, is occupying itself with the Greek problem, regarding which announcement was made yesterday that steps were being taken in an effort to reach a very radical solution.

COURT SUSTAINS DEATH SENTENCE

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., December 12.—The conviction and sentence to death of Reuben Ellis, Cincinnati negro, who murdered Anna Hart, Hamilton county jail matron, last July, while attempting to break jail, was upheld by the Supreme Court today when the court denied the application of attorneys for Ellis to file a petition in error.

Ellis is now in the penitentiary anxiously awaiting electrocution February 6th.

"CONSCIOUS OF THEIR RESPONSIBILITY BEFORE GOD AND BEFORE HUMANITY"

—BETHMANN-HOLLWEG

Germany and Her Allies Propose to the Hostile Powers to Enter Into Peace Negotiations

RINGING ADDRESS IS MADE IN THE REICHTAG

Events of the Great War Recounted and Hope for Peace Is Expressed.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Berlin, December 12.—(wireless to Sayville, L. I.)—Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg's speech is reported by the Overseas News Agency as follows:

Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg today announced to the Reichstag that Germany, together with her allies, "conscious of their responsibility before God, before their own nations, before humanity," had proposed this morning to the hostile powers to enter on peace negotiations.

The Chancellor first outlined the extraordinary political situation, and then, insisting upon achievement of the Central Powers, made an announcement which possibly may be the turning point in the war, which for more than two years has held the world under its spell.

The Chancellor said: "The Reichstag had not been adjourned for a long period, but fortunately it was left to the discretion of the President as to the day of the next meeting.

"This decision was caused by the hope that soon happy events in the field would be recorded—a hope fulfilled quicker almost than expected. I shall be brief, for actions speak for themselves."

The Chancellor said Roumania had entered the war in order to roll up the German positions in the east and those of Germany's allies.

At the same time, the grand offensive on the Somme had, as its object, to pierce the German western front, and the renewed Italian attacks were intended to paralyze Austria-Hungary.

"The situation was serious," the Chancellor continues, "but, with God's help, our troops shaped conditions so as to give us security which not only is complete, but still more so than ever before.

"The western front stands; not only does it stand, but, in spite of the Roumanian campaign, it is fitted out with larger reserves of men and material than it had formerly.

"The most effective precautions have been taken against all Italian diversion; and, while on the Somme and on the Carso the drum fire resounded; while the Russians launched troops against the eastern frontier of Transylvania, Field Marshal von Hindenburg captured the whole of western Wallachia and the hostile capital of Bucharest, leading with unparalleled genius the troops that, in competition with all the allies, made possible what hitherto was considered impossible.

"And Hindenburg does not rest! Military operations progress. By strokes of the sword, at the same time firm foundation for our economic needs have been laid.

"Great stocks of grain, victuals, oil and other goods fell into our hands in Roumania. Their transport has begun. In spite of scarcity we could have lived on our own supplies, but now our safety is beyond question.

"To these great events on land heroic deeds of equal importance are added by our submarines. The specter of famine which our enemies intended to appear before us now pursues them without mercy.

"When, after the termination of the first year of the war, the Emperor addressed the nation in a public appeal, he said: 'Having witnessed such great events, my heart was filled with awe and determination.

HOCKING VALLEY IS AGAIN JOLTED

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, December 12.—The Supreme Court today, for a second time upheld the Public Utilities Commission in ordering the Hocking Valley Railway Company to restore inter-urban service for passenger on its line between Hamden and Jackson. The railway company three years ago decided to abandon this service, claiming it was not profitable.

ELKS MAKING GREAT PLANS FOR CHARITY

"One Hundred Percent" Charity to Exceed All Previous Events and Many Little Wards of the Big Hearted Elks Will Be Made Very Happy.

The Washington Lodge of B. P. O. Elks, which for years has been Santa Claus to a great number of the poor children of the city, has made plans for the most comprehensive "One Hundred Percent Charity" ever attempted in this part of the state, and will expend about $1,000 on necessities for the youngsters, not forgetting to give the usual treat of toys and candy to make complete the happiness of the little boys and girls who would not know what Santa Claus meant if it were not for the big hearted Antlerd Herd.

For several weeks the Elks have had plans under consideration, and the Christmas Charity Committee is working in real earnest and now has the plan well under way.

Because of the high price of necessities it is believed that the field of operations of the Elks this year will be greater than ever before, and arrangements are being made accordingly.

The money for the great charity is not raised by the usual entertainments, etc., but each member of the order voluntarily contributes whatever he can afford, and this goes into a common fund every cent of which is expended for clothing, shoes, stockings, and Christmas treat for all worthy youngsters under 14 years of age, regardless of their color.

Realizing the great need of the charity this year, the Big Brothers are responding liberally, and in true Benevolent Elk style.

The plan adopted by the Elks in this city is being followed by many other Elk lodges in the various surrounding cities. The system used is thorough, so that the true condition of each little Ward is known when name is given on Christmas morning as they assemble at the Elks Home to meet Santa and receive the gifts so necessary to their happiness and proper existence.

Congregational Clergyman's Views on Woman's Dress

Washington, Dec. 12.—Woman's clothes of today make men "helpless" in guarding their morals Dr. James L. Gordon, a Congregational clergyman, told a large gathering composed principally of young women, in a sermon here.

"If the young men of this generation have not gone headlong headfirst it has not been the fault of the young women," Dr. Gordon said. He declared present day women "will gamble away their honor, womanhood, reputation and even their destiny." "No stake is too high for a woman," he said.

HOW RED CROSS SEAL IDEA CAME INTO BEING

Originating in Norway, Method Was Taken Up Here Nine Years Ago.

Over $3,250,000 has been raised by Red Cross Christmas Seals in the last eight years, and yet many people who will buy these holiday stickers at this ninth annual sale do not know how this idea originated.

While Red Cross Seals really date back to the Civil War when "Charity Stamps" were first used, the first campaign to sell holiday stickers for the tuberculosis fight was only nine years ago in Delaware. Miss Emily P. Bissell of Wilmington read an article by Jacob Rils describing stamps used for tuberculosis work in Norway, and she conceived the idea of a similar plan here. Single handed, she launched a sale which resulted in $3,000 clear money. When Miss Bissell tried to convince the American Red Cross that this idea should be made national as a peace activity of that society, she met with opposition, but finally persuaded the authorities, with the result that on an investment of a few hundred dollars $135,000 worth of Seals was sold in 1908 and the great national campaign was launched. Since then the sale has gone forward by leaps and bounds, until now the Red Cross Seal is an institution in the United States, and offers to every one a chance to help in the people's fight against the people's disease. Last year over 76,000,000 Seals were sold, and this year the American Red Cross and The National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis, who conduct the sale, are out for a 100,000,000 sale or $1,000,000 for the Tuberculosis war.

The policy on which the sale is conducted is that the money, except for the deduction of legitimate expenses, shall remain in the community where the Seals are sold.

To Retire Greenbacks?

Leading men now are seriously considering the suggestion that the greenbacks be retired from circulation and by that means the volume of money in circulation contracted or reduced some three hundred and fifty million dollars.

The nation right now has too much money and the increase during the last two years has been gold and as gold cannot be retired the greenbacks have been singled out as the proper part of the currency at which to direct the efforts to contract the currency.

The "Greenbacks" are nothing more nor less than the promissory notes of the United States government. A promise to pay the bearer on demand in coin. By act of congress the greenbacks are made money because they must be accepted as payment for all debts save a few specified in the act making them legal tender.

The other forms of paper money now in circulation are the gold notes the silver certificate and the national bank notes. The first two mentioned merely certify that they are in lieu of the coin on deposit in the treasury and the last mentioned predicated upon the assets of the issuing bank and secured by deposit of government bonds in the treasury department.

Able men—students of conditions—attribute no small part of the cause of present high prices to the increase in money and insist that a contraction of the currency by the retirement of the greenbacks will go far toward relieving the conditions.

The greenbacks, originally issued as a means for the government to raise money, have played a very important part in the finances of the nation and the subject of their issuance and redemption has furnished the all important and much debated question upon which more than one national election campaign has been waged and won.

Basic money always has been and probably always will be, but if congress, in its wisdom, should decree the retirement of the greenbacks, the currency of the nation would lose one of its most interesting fractions.

The old greenback has been a "life saver" more than once in our financial history but perhaps it has served its purpose and must make way for new conditions.

Thus far about the only fault the individuals have found with greenbacks was that they couldn't get enough of them.

A New Peace Plan

Ambassador Naon of Argentina is urging a decidedly novel and, apparently, practical plan to insure peace and friendship between his native land and the people of the United States.

His plan is simple and is receiving the favorable consideration of a great many of the prominent folks to whom he has submitted it.

Ambassador Naon's plan is to have a school in this country correspond with a school of similar grade in Argentina. The pupils of the school to keep up the correspondence during their school life and thus become better acquainted with each other, their respective ambitions, hopes, purposes and activities.

It is a beautiful idea and should work ideally to bring about that understanding and friendship and good will, the one for the other, which would make war impossible.

Underlying Ambassador Naon's idea is simply the one of arriving at a permanent understanding.

Wars result from misunderstandings and if there is accord between peoples their can be no war.

The plan is certainly worthy of very general adoption.

The High Cost Probes

Whether investigations by federal and state authorities now being projected or already well under way, will result in anything tangible in the way of price reductions or not, we are, it seems certain to hear a great deal during the next few weeks about "price probes."

The most formidable action thus far taken is that by the federal government in launching, under the direction and control of the department of justice, grand jury investigations in several of the great market centers simultaneously.

The federal investigators will search for evidence tending to show the existence of a conspiracy to withhold foodstuffs and coal in large quantities from retailers and consumers for the purpose of creating an unusual demand and a consequent high bid in price for commodities.

These several investigating organizations will be in constant touch with each other so that there will be no possibility of shifting the blame from the place under fire to some other market center.

Most people are decidedly skeptical of the ability to bring results via the probe route but already prices of some necessities have fallen very appreciably. Whether through fear of the possible result of the probe or not matters little. If relief comes the people will be glad.

Poetry For Today

WHEN CHRISTMAS COMES

When Christmas comes,
And from the steeples far and near
The bells ring out in happy cheer
To welcome in the birthday morn
Of one in lowly manger born,
Who died for men, yet rules a King,
All hearts take up the theme and sing
As angels sang, o'er Bethlehem's hill
"Peace on Earth, to Men Good Will."

When Christmas comes,

When Christmas comes,
And holly hangs upon the wall
In humble home and stately hall,
Then men put by, for one brief day,
The cares that frighten peace away—
All thought that vex, and festal cheer
Comes, on the best day of the year,
To gladden hearts and homes, and make
Man better for his brother's sake.

When Christmas comes,

When Christmas comes,
We somehow feel the whole world kin,
Then friendship's fires are kindled in Cold hearts, whose doors have long been shut.
"Come in! rings out from hall and hut—
"Come in, come in—'tis Christmas
Day.
Put all old differences away—
Join hands and hearts, as all men should, in universal brotherhood,
When Christmas comes."

"SYNDICATE" WILSON DIES IN HOSPITAL

Henry Clay Wilson, familiarly known in this part of Ohio as "Syndicate" Wilson, is dead.

Wilson is the man who used Billy Sunday tactics in the pulpit while Rev. Sunday was still playing baseball, and had a method which for years was all his own.

Rev. Wilson was called "Syndicate" because it was remarked that he had "an option on religion." He died in the West Virginia Hospital for the Insane, at Spencer, West Virginia, and was buried there.

Rev. Wilson formerly lived at Porter, Gallia county, and during his very unusual career started some 20,000 persons on the road to better living.

One of Wilson's last meetings was held at Sedalia, in lower Madison county.

The man for many years was addicted to the drink and drug habits, and this is believed to have been responsible for his death in an insane hospital.

Those who knew him pronounced him one of the most remarkable characters they ever met. In his weakness, which he frankly admitted, lay most of his strength as an evangelist.

HARTMAN THEATER (COLUMBUS)

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, December 18, 19 and 20.—Matinee Wednesday.—"Peg O' My Heart."

"Peg O' My Heart," Oliver Morosco's production of J. Hartley Manners' comedy which will be the attraction at the Hartman Theater, Columbus, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, December 18, 19 and 20th, is one of the few dramatic offerings that can boast of two years' continuous run in New York. It is also, as nearly everyone knows now, one of the most delightful and perennially popular of all stage offerings.

Each time "Peg" has appeared in Columbus, capacity audiences have greeted her. This year this most charming of stage heroines will be impersonated by Kitty O'Connor, a young actress said to possess unusual ability, charm and beauty. The supporting company also is said to be an exceptionally fine one. Another thing which will be of interest to Hartman patrons regarding "Peg O' My Heart," is the fact that for the first time in the history of this successful play, it will be shown at the Hartman at popular prices, the highest price for any seat in the house being one dollar.

Nearly everyone knows the story of "Peg" by this time, it is believed. The bare outline, however, is as follows.

"Peg" is a little Irish-American girl, who has been reared by an adored and adoring father. At his death Peg is sent to England to make her home with some aristocratic relations, who accept the care of her not from affection, but for the money which they are to receive doing so.

Peg's unfamiliarity with the customs of the smart set, her curious antics and ready Irish wit bring about a succession of humorous complications throughout the play. Peg also, of course, has her love romance, and this love interest, combined with the unusually delightful comedy, make "Peg O' My Heart" a play which has never been excelled for sweetness and simplicity. No one who has ever seen the piece can forget Peg's entrance with her dog, Michael, her funny mistakes, her blunt honesty, her kee-kitted Irish retorts to her supercilious cousin Ethel, and her asinine cousin Alaric. Peg is one of the few plays that can be seen again, and yet again, without weariness upon the part of the spectator.

Others in the company beside Miss O'Connor are Tempe Pigott, Charles Hanna, Carrington North, O. S. Alenton, William Macauley, Herbert Evans, Frances Sanson and Paget Hunter.

RECOVER HORSE AND RIG STOLEN

Chillicothe Piano Dealer Alleged to Have Sold Horse and Buggy Owned By New Holland Liveryman—Stopped Here.

Marshal S. A. Stoker, and James Brown, liveryman, of New Holland, went to Greenfield, Monday, to obtain possession of a horse and buggy which had been stolen from Mr. Brown and sold to a man by the name of Hildebrand, in or near Greenfield.

Two weeks ago Frank Berkley, of Chillicothe, piano dealer, appeared at the Brown liverybarn in New Holland and wanted a rig for a couple of days. He was fitted out with one of the best horses and buggies in the barn.

Driving to this city the man stopped at the Crone livery barn, had the animal fed, and announced that he would return in the evening and place the horse in the barn over night. He did not pay his bill here, and was not heard of again until a few days ago when it was learned that Berkley had driven to Greenfield and there sold the horse and buggy to Hildebrand and then boarded a train for parts unknown.

Berkley recently returned to Ohio from the Klondike region. As he was a well known piano dealer Mr. Brown felt no hesitancy in allowing him to take the horse and buggy, and felt no uneasiness until the man failed to return after the third day.

JACKS CHARGED WITH FIRST DEGREE MURDER

Harvey Jacks, the man who shot and killed Thomas Waldren on the Persinger farm near Waterloo, early Saturday morning, faces a charge of first degree murder placed against him in Pickaway county, and his hearing was set for Tuesday afternoon, when he was to be arraigned before Mayor Goeller, of Circleville.

Jacks does not deny his crime, and places the blame on whiskey. It is not known whether he claims self-defense.

The bullet which caused Waldren's death entered the body above the stomach, was deflected by striking a rib, penetrated the stomach and intestines and stopped just under the skin at the back.

The body of Waldren was removed to his late home for funeral services. Burial probably will be made near Frankfort.

28,000 VOLUMES ADDED IN YEAR

Washington, December 12. — Gifts from many sources have brought more than 28,000 volumes to the Library of Congress during the year, and comprised more than one-fourth of the additions to its shelves. Retaining its place as the third greatest library in the world, and the greatest in the western world, the library now contains 2,451,974 books, 154,200 maps and charts, 770,248 volumes and pieces of music and 392,905 prints.

For large additions to the Chinese and Japanese collections the Library acknowledges debt to Dr. Walter T. Swingle of the Bureau of Plant Industry, who visited the Far East in 1915 and purchased on behalf of the library a total of 5,892 volumes including early Chinese books printed from blocks; Chinese historical and descriptive works covering the period of first contact with Europeans; early Chinese dictionaries and encyclopedias; Chinese works on natural history and pharmacopoeias; geographical works; the writings of Confucius and the works of famous scholars; and a good copy of the oldest Japanese printed work extant, probably dating from the beginning of the thirteenth century; and a large collection of the writings of Kaibara, the Benjamin Franklin of Japan.

The Lincoln documents which have been presented to the library are of exceptional interest. These consist of the original draft of Lincoln's second inaugural address, and his two drafts of the Gettysburg address presented by Clarence L. Hay, who had them from his father, the late John Hay; and a memorandum as to the improbability of his reelection, presented by Miss Helen Nicolay.

WANT MORE JUDGES TO SIT

Columbus Jurist Would Have the Local Judges Sit With Him in Flood Cases.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, December 12. — Judge Frank T. Rathmell, in a decision rendered this morning in connection with the extension of the Franklin County district for flood control to counties lying north and south of Franklin county, held that before the district could be extended, judges from those counties would have to be admitted to the bench to decide the question.

The court held that practically all the details in creating an original district would have to be followed in extending an original district.

The proposed district would include Mairon, Delaware, Pickaway, Ross, and Morrow Counties.

New York, December 12.—The women and children among the 232 passengers on the United States army transport Sumner, aground on the New Jersey coast off Barnegat, have all been taken off, according to a message received here today from Captain Webber of the transport.

The coast guard cutter Mohawk has arrived at the Sumner's position.

The transport lies apparently in a safe position, the weather is foggy, but the ground swell only light and moderate.

The vessel struck late last night in a heavy fog and sent out wireless calls for help. The persons rescued were taken ashore in life boats.

IMMIGRATION BILL MAY BE TURNED DOWN

Washington, Dec. 12.—Should the Immigration bill go to the White House with the literacy test attached, it is definitely known that President Wilson will veto the measure. The bill passed the house at the last session of congress.

The president, early in his administration, vetoed a similar bill for the same reason—as "President Cleveland and Taft had done before him—but advocates of the legislation had hoped that he would not withhold his signature this time if substantial majorities were given in both houses of Congress.

Debate on the bill in the senate developed into a general argument over the question of exclusion of aliens on account of race.

Senator Works of California started the discussion by giving notice that he reserved the right to demand a separate vote on a senate committee amendment providing for the exclusion of Hindus and other Asiatics by prescribing geographical areas from which immigrants shall not be admitted, without enumerating races.

Senator Reed offered an amendment to include the continent of Africa within the limits set by the committee. He said he would favor any legislation which would keep out of the United States any persons not of pure white blood, but he did not think it proper for Congress "to exclude by law and admit by diplomacy."

"I believe," said Senator Reed, "the time has come when we ought to keep our country from being filled up with people not capable of becoming first-class citizens of the United States, people who by birth, environment and disposition, or by their great ignorance, are not qualified to perform the duties of citizens."

Senator Smith of South Carolina, in charge of the bill, produced statistics to show that in the last 95 years there have been 14,000 immigrants from Africa to this country.

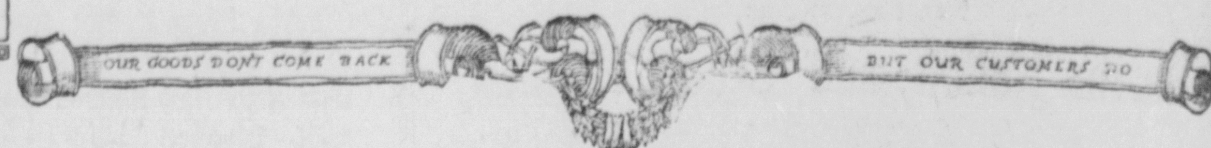

Senator Vardaman, Democrat, introduced an amendment setting forth that there is some doubt whether the fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the constitution, enfranchising the negro, were properly adopted, and directing the attorney general to lay the question before the supreme court to have it ascertain whether they were made a part of the constitution in the manner provided for constitutional changes.

WOULD FORCE ARMY SERVICE

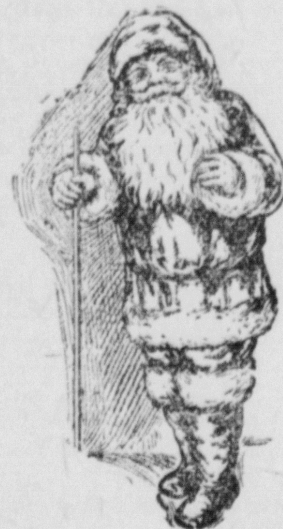

Washington, Dec. 12.—Secretary Daniels, before the house naval committee, advocated legislation which would compel steel companies and other private concerns to give preference to government orders for military supplies. He will submit a new section for the pending naval appropriation bill for this purpose, in order to hasten battleship construction, which he declared was being delayed by commercial work both in the yards of private builders and in the steel plants.

Secretary Baker wrote Speaker Clark, in response to a house resolution that 11,834 out of the grand total of 165,000 national guardsmen taken into the federal service up to Aug. 31, were without previous military training. Rejections of enrolled guardsmen for various causes operated later

In this connection, also, army officers charged with the duty of studying events of the European war, both political and military, made preparations to contend before the congressional military committee that the fundamental reason for the cabinet crisis in England was the volunteer military policy there prior to the passage of the conscription act. The experience of Great Britain is viewed by these officers as the strongest of arguments for the establishment of universal military training in the United States, as urged in the report of Major General Hugh L. Scott, chief of staff, and to which the entire American general staff is committed.

MARY PICKFORD COMING

The Palace Theater announces with pleasure the booking for Thursday and Friday afternoon and night the first presentation in this city of Mary Pickford in her new photo play, "Less Than the Dust." No star of screen land is so admired and so affectionately regarded as Miss Pickford whose past creations are all remembered for their real art and charm. Her screen appearances at the Palace Theater during this engagement will have an additional interest in that it will mark her first presentation here of a production made under her own guidance and directed by her own company, the Mary Pickford Film Corporation. It will be the most elaborated production in which she has ever been seen, one that has been given a masterly direction by John Emerson. Its scenes are laid in India and England. Miss Pickford playing the part of a runaway, a girl of English birth who having been adopted by a Hindu sword maker, is reared among the natives of the lower caste. Its story is full of realisms and dramatic strength with an appealing love story in which the girl and a young English officer are the central figures. Miss Pickford has surrounded herself with a cast of distinction with a company of unusual size appearing in the various elaborate and picturesque scenes. Advtd.

FIGHTING HARD TO REDUCE COST

President Approves Investigation By Justice Department.

Washington, Dec. 12.—General approval of the investigation being conducted by the department of justice into the increased cost of living was given by President Wilson at a conference with District Attorney Anderson of Boston. In charge of the inquiry. The president will continue the examination of facts collected by various departments before deciding whether any remedial legislation shall be recommended to Congress.

It was said by officials connected with the investigation that their chief hope for the ultimate lowering of the cost of living lies in simplifying the means of transportation of foodstuffs, the practice of economy by the public, increase in production by farmers, and through other such methods, rather than by the prosecution of law-breakers.

Indications are, however, that the program for immediate action already outlined will be followed with little modification. This includes general investigation of the activities of alleged coal and food speculators and a closer inquiry into the relation between the high cost of living and the shortage of freight cars.

Department of justice officials let it be known that their work would be continued with a greater degree of secrecy than hitherto, and that no disclosures concerning the activities of any group of men under surveillance would be forthcoming until after submission to a grand jury.

Washington, Dec. 12.—The United States supreme court will hear arguments in the Adamson eight-hour law test case Jan. 8.

The court set the date when government lawyers asked that their appeal of Judge Hook's decision in the Missouri, Oklahoma & Gulf railroad case be expedited as much as possible. Judge Hook held the law is unconstitutional. The Adamson law goes into effect Jan. 1.

By agreement between railroad and government attorneys the Adamson law will not be enforced until the supreme court hands down its opinion.

SYNOPSIS.

Plerport Stafford, with his daughter Gloria, is wintering at Palm Beach, Fla. Gloria is in the hands of the Seminole Indians. She falls in love with her rescuer, Freneau. Five years later she leaves school into the hands of the theater; he has forgotten Gloria. Later Freneau persuades her to forgive him. Gloria's sister-in-law, Lois, becomes intensely jealous and Doctor Royce discovers in her an ally. Freneau takes leave of Gloria. She sees from her window an attack made upon him. Doctor Royce convinces her it is delirium. She accidentally sees the supposed suicide of Freneau reported in the paper. Gloria insists in going to Palm Beach. She is recognized by her one-time captor, the young Indian chief. He tells her that Royce and not Freneau was her rescuer at that time. Gloria attends night school; she sees Mully there, also the tramp who attacked Freneau. But Judge Freeman releases him. She follows the tramp when he leaves court. She finds herself in a low saloon dance hall, and is selected by one of the patrons as his partner. Doctor Royce, however, follows her and when he attempts a rescue, calls down a riot on their heads. The hall is raided and the crowd, including Gloria and Royce, is arrested and taken before Judge Freeman. Casimir arrives with the child Gloria promised to adopt. She orders Royce to take Casimir's wife to the Stafford home. She follows Trask and lands on a houseboat to hear him accused of Freneau's murder. She confronts him; he imprisons her, but she ties him up and escapes. In the yacht Gloria and the men pursue the harem. In the fight that follows Trask is badly wounded. He is taken to the Stafford home. Royce endeavors to return to Lois her letters to Freneau. During a playful scuffle Gloria sees and recognizes the envelope. She suspects Royce of complicity in the murder and tells her all. She sees one of Lois' letters to Freneau. Judge Freeman confesses his part. When Lois is confronted she flees from Gloria, intent on suicide. But Gloria races after her and prevents her from committing the deed. She then returns the letters to Lois and forgives her. Thinking that David is the one responsible for Freneau's death, she takes him aside to confront him. But Trask has been spirited away by Judge Freeman who believes as Gloria does.

Gloria surrendered the girl to him and saw that Nell leaned heavily upon his strong, encircling arms.

Gloria left them together and went down to the living room. There she found Judge Freeman. The haggardness seemed to have left his ancient face. He spoke to her:

"I heard what Trask told you. I never was so glad or so proud to be proved wrong. I owe David a humble apology."

"Will you make it to him?"

"No, not for world. The most profound apologies we make to people are the silent ones they never hear. I could not apologize to David without telling him what I apologized for, and that I could never do. Lois is going to be a good wife to him. She ought to have her chance to build up their lives together. Have you the heart to tear their home to pieces now? Have you the right?"

Gloria answered dreadingly: "I haven't the strength. That's about all I know."

She walked out upon the lawn where the sunset was adding almost intolerable beauty to the majesty of the river and the Palisades. The vast old peaks, like relentless judges, were being softened into a tenderness by the soft colors from the sky. Gloria sat down on a bench before a softly plashing fountain whose waters were made rosy by the light. Royce found her there and sat down by her. He was tired and very solemn with the last rites of old Trask.

"Is your heart at peace at last, Gloria?" he murmured.

OVERLAND GUESTS HAD LARGE TIME

Two hundred representatives of the Columbus sales branch of the Overland Co., of which Washington is a part, returned to their homes Saturday from Toledo, where they were guests Friday of President John N. Willys at the Overland factory.

The day was one of the biggest of the big 23-day convention which has now been in session two weeks. One thousand guests were received Friday and including, besides the Columbus branch, representations from Dayton, Canton, Akron, Youngstown and Erie, Pa.

First class accomodation were accorded the guests and the program of entertainment consisted of trips through the immense factories and offices, an automobile show in the Overland's own garage, lectures and theatrical performances, and the local delegation, as well as all others were highly pleased with their cordial reception.

The Washington contingent, comprised of Messrs Elmer Junk, of the Junk and Willett Hardware Co., local agency for the Overland, Fred M. Mark, Charles F. Coffey, M. W. Claggen, and Fred Vannordall, of Jeffersonville, left Thursday to join the other delegations of the Columbus branch at Columbus, and after a banquet there at the Elks' home, left after midnight on the "Overland Millionaire Special" for Toledo. Arriving in Toledo at 8 o'clock Friday they were received by the factory committee, and after breakfasting at the administration building entered upon the day's program.

The factories and show rooms were the chief points of attraction. In the former special demonstrations in the making an assembling of each piece of Overland mechanism were given for the inspection parties, and in the show rooms dealers were shown and instructed in all features of the new models, of which there are many this season. There, too, orders were taken for shipment and Manager Junk of the local agency was among those to avail themselves of the first consignments of the late models.

An unique feature of the program was the exhibit in the afternoon of a moving picture of the guests taken as they filed from their trains in the morning. An address by President Willys, a sumptuous beef banquet, and a minstrel show wound up the day's activities. The delegations returned on the special to Columbus Saturday.

The immensity of the Overland company's manufacturing capacity, of its directors' generosity and of the big convention itself—in which dealers from all over the United States are being, and are to be, received—are things that must be experienced to be truly appreciated.

EXTREME CRUELTY IS CHARGE FILED

Charges of extreme cruelty and gross neglect of duty are grounds cited by Laura M. Hoppes against Linn Hoppes, in an action filed in the common pleas court early Monday morning, in which she asks divorce, custody of a minor child, alimony and injunction preventing defendant disposing of or incumbering certain realty, personal property, etc.

Plaintiff states that she was married to the defendant December 20, 1905, and that since 1907 the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and that upon a number of occasions he choked, struck, cursed and abused her, and that his last offense occurred Sunday, when defendant is charged with knocking plaintiff down and choking her, injuring her badly. Plaintiff claims that she recently underwent an operation, and that defendant caused injuries to the wound from which she had not fully recovered. John Logan represents the plaintiff.

Summons was made on the defendant while he was in the Mayor's office, where the plaintiff had filed an affidavit charging assault and battery. The prosecuting witness was out of the city, and the case was continued.

PAUL ZIMMERMAN AWARDED THIRD "M"

Seventeen men were awarded the "M" at Miami this year, for distinguished work on the gridiron.

The announcement was made Friday night at cabaret-dinner given in honor of the Ohio Conference Champions. Paul Zimmerman received his third "M". For three years he has been a sure hard fighter and has always contrived to outplay his opponents. Paul led the team in the number of tackles and assists made this year.

Lewis McVey, of Sidney, was elected captain of the team for 1917.

The pledges of the various fraternities put on the cabaret stunts and they brought great applause. Speeches were made by Coach Little, Captain Crawford, Manager Isreal and others. Lots of pep was shown by everyone and the team was shown the appreciation of the students for their hard work this year.

NEW DISCOVERIES SAVES MILLIONS

Washington, December 11.—Manufacturer of radium worth more than a million dollars; a saving of more than $20,000,000 worth of natural gas in the Blackwell field of Oklahoma; manufacture of gasoline at a cost of six cents a gallon; development of an electrical furnace which promises to wipe out losses of $10,000,000 a year in the melting of brass, and the saving of many lives through the promotion of scientific mining methods are among the achievements of the federal bureau of mines outlined in the annual report of the director, Van H. Manning.

The manufacture of radium was accomplished in co-operation with the National Radium Institute which furnished capital of $300,000 necessary to develop an economical method of extracting the precious metal from the carnotite ores of the west. Eight and one-half grams of radium were produced at a cost of less than $40,000 per gram, which in open market would have cost between $100,000 and $120,000 a gram. The greater part of the product was turned over to two great hospitals for use in treatment of cancer, from which it is estimated there are 75,000 deaths each year in the United States.

The saving of $20,000,000 worth of natural gas in the Blackwell field was accomplished by use of the bureau's new method of drilling wells. It includes a process of sealing the gas in its original reservoir until marketing time. Oil operators in Kansas and other states have adopted the method.

The new process of manufacturing gasoline was evolved with the Rittman furnace which makes it possible to take the waste gas oil of California which is worth two cents a gallon and make from it gasoline at a cost of six cents a gallon.
